

WE'RE HIRING:

Spezialist Einkauf & Logistik (m/w/d)

Location: Wuppertal / Office & remote

We're really good at a lot of things, but not at everything yet. That's why we're looking for people who take the initiative and stand out thanks to their dedication, skills and talent.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Procure technical materials, components, and services for our projects
- Clarify purchasing requirements, identify and select suppliers, and obtain and compare quotations
- Negotiate commercial terms, place purchase orders, and proactively monitor delivery schedules
- Build and maintain supplier relationships while ensuring cost efficiency, quality, and on-time delivery performance
- Coordinate domestic transportation and deliveries; support international shipments

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS

- Completed commercial or technical education, or a comparable qualification
- Several years of purchasing experience, ideally within the industrial automation market
- Proven expertise in operational procurement, supplier management, and contract negotiations
- Proficient in Microsoft Office applications and experienced in working with ERP systems
- Structured, self-driven, and highly hands-on working style

when required

- Maintain purchasing, material, and supplier data accurately within the ERP system
- Collaborate closely with project teams, sales, finance, and other internal stakeholders
- Establish practical processes, responsibilities, and standards for procurement and logistics operations
- Enjoy building processes while actively contributing to day-to-day operations
- Excellent written and spoken German and English skills; experience with international logistics and SAP S/4HANA is considered an advantage
